Funeral Service Held For Claremont Woman

Funeral services were held in the Augustana Lutheran church Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Fred Carlson, who died last Saturday at her home. The Rev. C. E. Shaleen, pastor of the church officiated and interment was in the Lutheran cemetery beside her husband who died last December.

She was born in Svea Berg, near Wexio, Sweden on December 7, 1866, and came to America in 1887, making her home in the Claremont community. She was married to Fred Carlson on November 23, 1898, and the two made their home for the next two years on the farm south of Claremont, now occupied by Mrs. John A. Johnson and her son, Eigner. Since 1900 they have resided on their farm north of Claremont.

Mrs. Carlson was the last of her family of eleven to die. The Carlsons had no children and there are no survivors close of kin.
